Pass. Shoot. Dribble

Position and Fundamental Camp

The Preseason Basketball Clinic is a skill development and training program. The program is designed to teach fundamentals and advanced skills to children to prepare them for the upcoming recreation season. This program (boys and girls ages 6 – 11) will help provide young players with the opportunity to build a solid fundamental base for the game of basketball. After attention to the basic skills, the participants will be instructed as to how such skills are best utilized in the team concept. Coach Green will work diligently to provide the future players with the necessary skill development to improve for the season. He will provide motivational and inspirational messages to encourage them to work hard in their academic achievements.
